

Join us for ACTRA’s NCA Solidarity and Action Plan Town Hall

Dear ACTRA Members, Friends, and Allies,

This Bulletin summarizes what’s happened recently regarding the National Commercial Agreement (NCA).

WHAT’S HAPPENED THIS WEEK: ACTRA announced a Solidarity and Action Plan, backed by an initial $1 million from national reserves, to fight back against concerted union-busting by some advertising agencies. “Our top priority is to ensure performing is a viable career for our members,” said Eleanor Noble, ACTRA National President. “The Action Plan sets out to do just that by increasing opportunities for more commercials to be made through the NCA.” READ THE NEWS RELEASE...

REGISTER FOR ACTRA’S UPCOMING TOWN HALL: Join ACTRA National President Eleanor Noble for a virtual Town Hall on Thursday, June 16 from 2:30-3:30 p.m. ET to hear all the details of ACTRA’s NCA Solidarity and Action Plan. ACTRA Members are invited to submit their questions in advance by E-mail (actra@actra.ca). Registration is required. You will receive your Zoom link after registering.

Thank you for your support and solidarity.

In solidarity,
Marie Kelly and Eleanor Noble
